

Emma Milsner, Didsbury Road Primary

SLE: English, Assessment and MFL

Emma is Assistant Headteacher at Didsbury Road Primary School and is responsible for assessment.

Emma previously worked as a Leading Teacher in the London Borough of Hounslow and was a lead teacher on the 'Every Child a Writer' initiative. Emma was an English and MFL lead in two schools and Teaching and Learning lead in her last school.

Emma has supported school leaders in a range of settings to analyse data, identify priorities and develop initiatives and training in order to improve writing outcomes. As an experienced MFL leader Emma has worked alongside non-specialists leaders in schools to develop the effective teaching of MFL.

In Emma's current role as Assessment Lead, she has developed moderation processes to ensure accurate teacher assessments and implemented a new assessment system. Emma has also worked with senior leaders in other schools to develop their assessment and moderation procedures.
