

Helen Lee, Queensgate Primary School

SLE: English

Helen is the Deputy Headteacher at Queensgate Primary School.

Helen is the Deputy Headteacher at Queensgate Primary which is an 'outstanding' school with Resource Provision for pupils with PMSL/SLD. Helen has been a teacher for twenty one years and is responsible for English, Assessment and Teaching and Learning. She is currently a member of the Year 6 team at Queensgate, thriving on the challenges and opportunities of the new curriculum. Her role as Cluster Leader enables her to support and guide Year 6 colleagues through the statutory assessment process.

Helen has completed her National Professional Qualification for Headship (NPQH), and has also had training in coaching and leadership through the National College. She is currently developing a professional dialogue approach when mentoring impact at a range of levels from classroom observations through to the effectiveness of subject leaders. She has a range of experience supporting colleagues in other schools and enjoys nothing more than working together in a team to facilitate high quality learning for all pupils.
